

Catholic Daughters of the Americas
Court Nativity of Our Lady #931 Brockport, NY

2022 National Education Contest – Local Winners – March 2022

Theme: “With God All Things Are Possible” Mt. 19:26 or “Where is God in my life when I am struggling.”

Division 1 (Grades 4-5)

Poetry:

- 1st Lillian Thrall – Seton Catholic School
- 2nd Nora Mayausky – Seton Catholic School
- 3rd Allie Duran - Seton Catholic School

Essays:

- 1st Meghan Coccia - St Pius X School
- 2nd Maria O'Brocta - St Pius X School
- 3rd Emilee Canarirs - St Pius X School

Art:

- 1st Mikaela Sleight – St Rita School
- 2nd Vera Huss - St Rita School
- 3rd Avery Campolieto - Seton Catholic School

Division 2 (Grades 6, 7, 8)

Poetry:

- 1st Mitwele Mango – Bishop Kearney School
- 2nd Tessa Hereth - Bishop Kearney School
- 3rd Hannah Rimkus- Bishop Kearney School

Essays:

- 1st Madelyn Goetz – Our Lady of Mercy School for Young Women

Division 4 (Grades 9 -12)

no entries this year.

Honorable Mention

Mitwele Mango- Division 2 – Art- Bishop Kearney School

Tessa Hereth -Division 2-Photography – Bishop Kearney School

Charilla S. Connor - Division 4- Photography – CDA Court Nativity #931

Congratulations to all of our winners and thank you to everyone who participated. We were pleased to have 92 entries this year from 5 schools within the Diocese of Rochester. All first place entries have been forwarded to the State Chapter of the Catholic Daughters for judging at that level. Remember to depend on God when you are struggling because with God all things are possible.

In Unity and Charity,

The members of CDA Court Nativity of Our Lady # 931

152 Main St, Brockport, NY 14420

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas (CDA) is one of the largest organizations of Catholic women in the World. It was founded in 1903 and has over 50,000 dues paying members in 42 states, Washington DC, Puerto Rico, Mexico, Guam, the Virgin Islands, Kenya and Peru. Court Nativity of Our Lady #931 was chartered in 1924 in Brockport, NY. Membership in a court is open to Catholic women who are at least 18 years old. New members are always welcome! Catholic Daughters enjoy each others company, encourage spiritual growth and provide service to their parishes and communities. More information about the organization can be found at www.catholicdaughters.org or by contacting Donna at dtglow@msn.com.